RATE INFORMATION

Current dividend rates are stated on the Rate Sheet. The APY is a percentage rate that reflects the total amount of dividends to be paid on an account based on the dividend rate and frequency of compounding for an annual period. Savings, Money Market and IRA accounts are tiered rate accounts whose balance ranges are stated on the Rate Sheet. Once a particular balance range is met, the dividend rate and APY for that balance range will apply to the full balance in your account. The dividend rate and APY may change monthly as determined by the Board of Directors. Other fees, withdrawals or conditions may apply and reduce the APY. The dividend rates, APYs and the 'Last Dividend Declared' are as stated on the Rate Sheet.

NATURE OF DIVIDENDS

Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings after required transfers to reserves at the end of the dividend period.

ACCRUAL OF DIVIDENDS

Dividends begin to accrue on cash and non-cash deposits (e.g.: checks) the business day you make the deposit to your account. If you close your account before accrued dividends are credited, accrued dividends will not be paid.

BALANCE INFORMATION

To open any account you must deposit or already have on deposit at least $5.00 in Savings. Some accounts may have minimum opening deposit requirements. Savings, Money Market and IRAs require a daily balance to obtain the APY for the dividend period. If a minimum daily balance is not met, you will not earn the stated APY. Dividends are calculated by applying the daily periodic rate to the daily balance in the account for the period.

INACTIVE ACCOUNTS

If your account falls below any applicable minimum balance and/or you have not made a withdrawal from or a deposit to your account for an extended period of time we may classify your account as inactive or dormant. Unless prohibited by applicable law, we may charge a service fee set forth in the Fee Schedule Disclosure for processing your inactive account. If we impose a fee, we will notify you, as required by law, at your last known address/email address via your account statement.
